Ely Cathedral stands on the site of an ancient monastery founded in 673 by St. Etheldreda. The present building was commenced in 1083 under the auspices of Simeon, the first Norman Abbot, and from then until 1400 many alterations and additions were made. The first choir was built 1100—07, but pulled down about 1235, the existing structure being erected 1338—50 under the auspices of Alan of Walsingham.
